

Position: Toolroom Machinist

Farris Automated Systems LLC is a supplier of custom automated assembly equipment for the automotive, heavy industrial, and general manufacturing industries. We offer complete turnkey systems from concept to installation. Farris Automated Systems employs engineers, machinists and assemblers in Mukwonago, WI. See our website at www.farrisautomation.com for more details.

Job Description:

The job will be non-repetitive in nature with multiple disciplines in machining. The ideal candidate will have worked with Haas Milling and Lathe equipment. The position is in a short run, job shop environment.

- 50% Set-up and machining on Haas mill/lathe
- 20% Set-up and machining on Proto-trac mill/lathe
- 30% MasterCAM programming – will train if needed

Some weekend work will be required.

Requirements:

- 5 years of hands on experience on manual mills and lathes
- 1-2 years of CNC training and code writing.
- Ideal candidate has prior set-up and offline programming experience. (Mastercam preferred). Will train a candidate with G and M code experience.
- Ability do own set-ups and responsible for part accuracy.
- Experience in fixturing and custom machine builds
- Knowledge of tooling and metals
- Ability to lift heavy objects (50 lbs)
- Mechanically intuitive
- Willingness to learn new technologies and disciplines
- Independent and self motivated history

Benefits:

- 2 weeks vacation, + holidays, + Flex Hours
- Job training on new technologies for current applications
- 401k, Health insurance, life insurance
- Relocation package available.

E-mail resume and references to mark@farrisautomation.com.